About RAMAANYA Foundation

About Our Foundation

Established in 2020 into section 8 company under companies Act, 2013 with an endowment from the Socialist, philanthropist Mr. Ram Kumar Singh and Ms. Anuradha Singh, the Foundation supports socially committed individuals and organizations to work towards the change they want to see. Since its inception, the Foundation has striven towards supporting actions which accelerate that change.

We work with Children, Youth (including Persons with Disabilities) Women and Households across in India. Ramaanya Foundation Promote Non-profit objective such as, charity.

Ramaanya Foundation enables non-profit organizations and social entrepreneurs to make a positive, lasting and sustainable impact on society.

Foundation Overview

Inspired by the vision of a socially, culturally and economically vibrant India, the Foundation supports civil society initiatives in sectors such as education, health, livelihoods, governance and civic issues, art and culture and youth and urbanisation. Besides supporting socially and economically challenged communities, it also strives to encourage excellence. Since its inception, the Foundation has striven towards supporting actions which accelerate that change.

Commitment to Enduring Change

Ramaanya Foundation is among the leading organization in India, committed to facilitating meaningful change in the country. It believes that the only way to ensure lasting change is to have an institutional framework that fosters economic and social development. Since the government's role in establishing policy frameworks is crucial, the Foundation liaises with the state to enable it to deliver better results in education, health care and economic empowerment.

Approach to Grand Making

Through its grant making endeavors, Ramaanya Foundation aims to transform the lives of socially and economically disadvantaged communities and to support civil society interventions.

The absence of a profit motive is not a sufficient explanation; hence, the Foundation seeks partners who are driven to deliver result-oriented outcomes. It collaborates with enterprising individuals and innovative organizations on projects that align with its priorities. As a step towards moving away from the narrow perspective of improving the delivery of goods and services in the social sector, it promotes symbiotic relationships between the public and private sectors to improve outcomes.

The Ramaanya Foundation has a vision to raise the scale of employability, and to financially support livelihood projects specifically aimed at sustainable development in urban and rural India. The Foundation endeavors to promote, encourage, and assist both rural development and skill development, by providing training, vocational guidance and making funds available by way of grants.
